Crescent Blues Book Views | Sue Corbett: 12 Again
Told from two points of view, this part mystere, part supernatural hybrid goes back and forth between Patrick, a 12-year-old boy whose mother has vanished, and Bernadette, his mother. Though discombobulated by the experience of being 12 again, Bernadette enjoys her second go-round in middle school and her reunion with her own mother, a superstitious, unassimilated Irish immigrant who is dead ...

12 AGAIN by Sue Corbett | Kirkus Reviews
Sue Corbett weaved together fantasy and realistic fiction into something new. 12 Again was interesting, entertaining, and enjoyable to read. I learned about several Irish customs and beliefs, but those parts weren't boring, though it might seem that way.
