Crazy in Love at the Lonely Hearts Bookshop is a fantastic love story. Nina is fabulous and I liked her style. She wears amazing dresses, she's confident and she can creatively express her knowledge about books. She's a fascinating person and I enjoyed reading every single word about her personality.

Crazy From The Heart is one of my all time favorite movies. I love the scene when Christine and Ruben sing together at the beach. I read somewhere that this scene was impromptu. The story is heart warming and sincere. Ruben Blades was fantastic in this film and so believable that even I fell in love with his character.

Suffice to say, Crazy in Love... was exactly what I needed: Nina and Noah were well written characters with interesting back stories and their interactions were witty and sparky. Yes, it follows the tried and tested romance formula - man and woman meet, a bit of awkwardness, attraction, pitfalls of getting together, etc. but it was fun!
