M.J. Hyland Official | Novels

MJ Hyland has become one of my favourite writers in recent years. I discovered her in 2006, when her second novel, Carry Me Down, was short-listed for that year's Man Booker Prize. That story, about a young Irish boy plagued by a certain kind of madness, was deeply unsettling.

This is How: Amazon.co.uk: Hyland, M.J.: 9781847673831: Books

Dread is, perhaps, too strong a word, but from the first page of MJ Hyland's new novel, This Is How, it is hard to resist a mounting sense of unease. Fans of Hyland's earlier work will quickly see parallels. At the centre of Carry Me Down, her Booker short-listed second novel, was John Egan, a difficult, troubled boy. In This Is How, she is drawn again to an emotionally inarticulate ...
